

Rise From Here

Yes, we serve a jealous God, Jealous is our God's name; Exodus 34:14. Now get over it so we can hear what Jesus is saying to us; "I and my Father are one" John 10:30. The Son of God let's us know that his Father gave the Son for his sheep ones, and not the other way around (e.g. sheep for Jesus). In power, two equals wouldn't have a reason to anoint each other. Only Father God anoint's his Son and never the other way around. For Christian understanding: Jesus said that his Father is greater than him and the Father gave him power so no man can pluck sheep out of Jesus's hands, and the same apply's to the Father's Hands; Ref: John 10:28-29. This is an expression of Jesus's one accord with his Father. Well put for Jesus to say " the Father and I are one". Jesus, let's us know that he is commanded by his Father John 14:31 and that all words heard from his mouth are the words of his Father that sent him; Ref: John 14:10. Jesus and God are alike but both can't be worshipped as God. If you go there, than you must hate one and love the other according to order in heaven. It's better to love Jesus as the Son and not as God, like the Bible tells us, Amen!
